Private tuition and coaching

Private PRINCE2® tuition: Some people can't afford to be away from work for five consecutive days. Yet it's important for them to be Prince2 accredited. Others understand project management, but need the accreditation. So they just require guidance towards grasping PRINCE2® quickly and being prepared for the PRINCE2® exams.

For some delegates there is no need to spend 5 days away from work. Well, there is an alternative. Let an experienced specialist tutor spend dedicated time with you, focussing on preparing you.

Coaching: is a form of development in which an experienced person, called a coach, supports a learner or coachee in achieving a specific personal or professional goal by providing training and guidance.

Why can private tuition and coaching deliver great results? That's because you are helped to identify and focus on what's important, which accelerates your success. According to coaches.com, good coaches: Create a safe environment in which people see themselves more clearly; identify gaps between where the student is and where the student needs or wants to be.

Benefits include:

- improvement in individual's performance, targets and goals.
- increased openness to personal learning and development.
- increased ability to identify solutions to specific work-related issues.

This service is available using Zoom inter-action during the day, in evening sessions or on the week-end.
